MLT LITERARY FESTIVAL

Join us for an enchanting celebration at Maltby Learning Trust annual Literary festival! Immerse yourself in the magical world of literature as the renowned Hobgoblin Theatre Company presents a captivating performance of "Wind and the Willow" across our Primary Academies.

Experience the power of words through the thrilling choral speaking competition, culminating in a live virtual final.

We are thrilled to announce special guest appearance by acclaimed poet and performer, Paul Cookson, who will be visiting our students in Key Stage 2.

Additionally, acclaimed author Gareth Baker will be enchanting little ones in Early Years Foundation Stage and Key Stage 1.

A festival filled with inspiration, imagination and love for Literature.
